 - (3) In the event fewer than three (3) bids are received, City Council may choose to either proceed with the bid opening or may extend the invitation period for no more than twenty (20) days. If extended, the bids shall be opened at the next regularly scheduled City Council meeting, or a special meeting called for that purpose. The City Council is not required to award the contract, however, if the City Council decides to award the contract, it shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, provided that the City Council may reject any or all bids determined to be, in the Council's discretion, unreasonable, undesirable, insufficient, not in accordance with the invitation for bids, or submitted by an irresponsible or unreliable bidder.
 - (4) Once it is determined that a particular bid will be accepted, the Mayor or the Mayor's duly authorized representative shall award the bid to successful bidder and, with the participation of the City Attorney, shall ensure a proper contract is entered into between the City and the successful bidder.
- (D) For all purchases of supplies, apparatus, equipment, material, and other things requisite for the City, or for necessary contracts for work or labor, where the expenditure therefore is, or is anticipated to be, in excess of $20,000, the following process shall be followed:
- (1) An invitation for bids shall be published by legal advertisement in any paper of general circulation within the City.

- (2) If at least three (3) bids are received, the bids shall be opened at the date, time and location set for the opening bids. The City Council is not required to award the contract, however, if the City Council decides to award the contract, it shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, provided that the City Council may reject any or all bids determined to be, in the Council's discretion, unreasonable, undesirable, insufficient, not in accordance with the invitation for bids, or submitted by an irresponsible or unreliable bidder.
 - (3) In the event fewer than three (3) bids are received, City Council may choose to either proceed with the bid opening or may extend the invitation period for no more than twenty (20) days. If extended, the bids shall be opened at the place, time and date set for the opening of bids. The City Council is not required to award the contract, however, if the City Council decides to award the contract, it shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, provided that the City Council may reject any or all bids determined to be, in the Council's discretion, unreasonable, undesirable, insufficient, not in accordance with the invitation for bids, or submitted by an irresponsible or unreliable bidder.
 - (4) Once it is determined that a particular bid will be accepted, the Mayor or the Mayor's duly authorized representative shall award the bid to successful bidder and, with the participation of the City Attorney, shall ensure a proper contract is entered into between the City and the successful bidder.
- (E) No invitation for bids, advertisement or competitive bidding shall be required for:
- (1) Professional services; or
 - (2) Products or services determined by the City Council to be provided by a unique vendor such that it does not lend itself to competitive bidding; or
 - (3) When it is determined by the City Council that competitive bidding is not feasible, possible or practical under the circumstances; or

 - (5) In cases of emergency. In the event of emergency, the Mayor shall report the expenditure to the City Council and shall certify in writing the fact constituting the emergency no later than the next regularly scheduled City Council meeting or special meeting called for that purpose.

- (F) The Mayor, or the Mayor's duly authorized representative, may approve for payment out of any funds previously appropriated pursuant to the process and for the purposes enumerated above, or disapprove any bills, debts, or liabilities asserted as claims against the City, when funds on hand are adequate to pay such bills, debts, or liabilities.
- (G) The Mayor, or the Mayor's duly authorized representative, may sell or exchange any municipal supplies, apparatus, equipment, materials, and other things requisite for the City, pursuant to the following procedure:
- (1) The Mayor, or the Mayor's duly authorized representative, may sell or exchange any municipal supplies, materials or equipment without competitive bidding, if such supplies, materials or equipment have a value of less than $10,000.

 - (a) By advertising the item for sale by legal publication in a paper of general circulation with the City. The advertisement shall invite bids, and the highest bidder shall be accepted, provided that the City Council may reject any and all bids determined in its discretion, to be unreasonable, undesirable, not in accordance with the invitation for bids or submitted by an irresponsible or unreliable bidder. The City may dispense with publication and competitive bidding when it determines the same is not feasible, possible or practical under the circumstances; or
 - (b) to the highest bidder at a public auction under such terms as set by the City Council.

(2) The cost of the service is under $10,000 in value and comparable services at comparable prices are not otherwise available within the City.

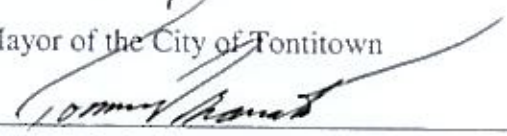

(I) The Mayor, or the Mayor's duly authorized representative, shall observe the following procedures for purchasing, which shall be the purchasing policy for the City. All items purchased should be assigned purchase orders.

(K) Each Alderman, the Recorder/Treasurer and the Mayor shall be authorized to sign checks or drafts on city accounts, unless otherwise specified by law. Two authorized signatures shall be required on all city accounts.

SECTION 3: EMERGENCY CLAUSE: The City Council hereby determines that an emergency exists in that the ability to make purchases and expenditures for City purposes is essential to the functioning of the City. The current ordinances are inadequate to allow for purchases and expenditures necessary for the public health, welfare and safety. Thus, being necessary for the protection of public health, safety, peace and welfare, this ordinance shall be in force and effect immediately upon its passage and approval.
