10. Comments from Mayor
 - Ken Robertson’s son and his wife where on their honeymoon in London and were moments away when chaos broke out on the bridge. Luckily they escaped with no injuries.
 - Reminder of the special election in July and how important this election is to the citizen’s water supply to Tontitown. If the citizens pass the sales tax, it will give Tontitown its independence for future growth and without being penalized due to that growth. Tontitown is one of the fastest growing towns in Arkansas and we must be able to grow with all the changes that are coming our way.

- Bathrooms are looking much better.
- Some of the hazards in the park have been removed. Other items are going to get attention. Grants are being filed to help with the cost.
- The city received 8 bids for the City Building remodel. Local business East Harding came in with the lowest bid but was still too high so the City is in conversations to lower the cost in areas that the City can do on their own.
- The City auction raised $150,000.00
- The Sunny Hinshaw sign has been hung on the new pavilion. Two more signs were made to hang on the other two pavilions, those names are Henry Piazza and Arthur Penzo. Another sign will be made in memory of Leon Zulpo to be placed on a possible new pavilion or the gazebo with the council's approval.
