9. Comments from Alderman

- Larry Ardemagni asks that the construction sites on Liberty pickup their trash that has been accumulating on the roadsides. (City is sending the code enforcer out to speak with them)
- Don Doudna said he heard that the water tower project was moving ahead, he asked if this was true. The mayor said "NO", he has made numerous phone calls but still no answers.
- Henry Piazza said the roadsides look good but more work is still needed.
- Tommy Granata said he has a place to dump the dirt from scraping of the roadsides.
- Gene McCartney said he is very happy with our city employees.
- Arthur Penzo asked James Clark if the city has heard anything about building of the school. James Clark replied, "NO".

10. Comments from Mayor

- The Mayor told Mrs. Brown that he got with an engineer to look at long term solutions on the flooding problems in the area but this will take time. In the mean time they are trying to get some relief.
- After speaking with the contractor, and some cooperating weather, the new city buildings roof in moving along.
- Officer Hammons was presented a "Certificate of Appreciation" for his above and beyond services.
- The Mayor added to the council that when you see one of our employees out and about to let them know that they are appreciated.
