9. Comments from Alderman
 - Larry Ardemagni told John Binyon that they will work on the trash truck problem and get this resolved, Henry Piazza agreed.
 - Henry Piazza said everything looks good and like the Christmas lights in the park.

- Gene McCartney agrees that we need to do more to get this issue resolved with the trash trucks, and would like to visit with John Binyon after the meeting. Christmas lights look good.
- Don Doudna and Tommy Granata said the Christmas lights look good and wanted to thank the Tontitown Area Fire Department for inviting the council to their Christmas Dinner, had a good time.

10. Comments from Mayor

- We signed off on the Water Tank.
- We are making big strides with the water line.
- December 21st at noon is the Tontitown City Employee Christmas Luncheon.
- We will be calling Waste Management in the morning and he agrees with Gene McCartney that police presents are needed.
- Work on Klenc Road should start again on Monday. We have applied for grants and addressed the Klenc Road issues, with the trash trucks and what steps have been taken.
- Thanked the council for their support to make the city what it is today.
- Bring trash issue to the next City Council Meeting.
