

Tontitown Historical Museum (THM) Report for the COW Meeting

Tuesday, May 17, 2022

The THM Board of Directors met in-person on Monday, May 2nd.

1. The main discussion of our meeting was discussing and finalizing the details of our Tontitown Heritage Day - set for this Saturday, May 21 11-1 pm in the Arthur Penzo Pavilion. We are partnering with The Tontitown Market.
 - a. Free food provided and served by Centennial Bank (hot dogs, chips, and drinks)
 - b. Live music from a Blue Grass Band
 - c. 2nd Annual Dessert Auction
 - d. Museum will be open during the event
 - e. Cake-walk and Jenga for the kids
 - f. Sponsors are Centennial Bank, McKee Foods, and Tontitown Winery
 - g. Searching for new Board Members, hoping to add 4-5 over the next few years
2. Visitors: We had 3 visitors in April with our appointment-based hours.
3. Grand Re-Opening: this weekend, starting March 20th. Our normal hours will continue to be Friday, Saturday, and Sunday 1pm – 4pm. We will continue to monitor the covid levels, using the Washington County ratings as our touch base. We chose this date to tie into our Tontitown Heritage Day event.

The next THM Board of Directors meeting is scheduled for Monday, June 6, 2022 6 p.m. via in person.
